ADVENT SECOND RITE OF RECONCILIATION, 15 DEC, 7.30PM. You are invited to take part in this. It can be helpful to celebrate Reconciliation in this way, which has both a communal and individual aspect. It can be a powerful element of our Advent preparation time. It is expected there will be a choice of priests to speak with.

PASEKA is a not-for-profit Catholic media group in Fiji. "Paseka" means "Paschal". It does very good work by livestreaming and recording Masses and other Liturgies so that a wider audience can benefit. It was and is instrumental in helping the late Fr Joseva Tuimavule CM and others heavily involved in ministry with the Deaf Community. In the Covid lockdown years and even today large international audiences would attend such Masses online. Paseka is the only platform for the Deaf Catholic Community in Fiji and the Pacific for online Masses and Catechesis. The platform used is Facebook and a search for "paseka facebook fiji" will allow you to see something of what they do. A request has come to the parish for help towards replacing worn-out gear like tripods and one iPad. To know more or support this cause, please contact Fr Greg in person or by phone or email greg@saintanthonys.org.au.

• PARISH COLLECTIONS •

1st collection: supports the Parish Priest, presbytery upkeep, food, utilities, support of the Archdiocese, care of elderly priests.
2nd collection: maintenance & upkeep of Parish buildings & grounds, pastoral works, Parish administration, insurance, utilities, salaries, priest car expenses & Charitable Works Fund shortfall.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

4 DECEMBER 2022

Last Sunday's readings focused on the final goal and meaning of our lives. It is the reason for the coming of Christ among us. Today we begin to look more directly at the coming of God's Son in our midst as a preparation for that final coming. The central figure in today's Gospel is John the Baptist.

But first, we need to look at the powerful passage from Isaiah in the First Reading that is in two parts.

The first, is a picture of the perfect King. He is a descendant of Jesse, who was the father of King David, and clearly points to Jesus. He is full of the Spirit of God and enjoys the special gifts of the Spirit: wisdom, insight, counsel, power, knowledge and a deep sense of reverence for God. When Jesus is baptised we will see that Spirit coming down on him in all its fullness. The second part, is a picture of the age this King will inaugurate. It is a regime of justice and peace, free from danger or fear. This is the ultimate goal of the Reign of God, a goal we have not yet realised but which, with the help of our King, we have great hope of reaching.

Strange as it may seem, God expects our co-operation in carrying it out.

A true prophet

But now to John the Baptist – a great figure in his own right and a true prophet in the Jewish tradition with a message from God. We know he had a large following of disciples and many people came out to the desert to hear him speak. He performed a ritual in water by which people expressed sorrow for their sinful lives and turned back to God. That ritual was called baptism.

In some ways the role of John was not unlike that of Jesus. Yet, in other ways, it was very different.

Like Jesus, John preached a message of repentance. 'Repentance' here, as elsewhere in the New Testament, translates the Greek word metanoia. It is much more than just being sorry for the past. It involves a deep and radical change in one's thinking and behaviour. 'Radical conversion' would be a better rendering than 'repentance', which somehow implies simply going back to one's past but without the sin.

Like Jesus, John will be rejected, persecuted, 'handed over' and finally executed for his courageous defence of truth and justice.

But there are also clear differences between John and Jesus.

Not equals

John emphasises that Jesus outranks him completely. He is not worthy to untie Jesus' sandals. He is simply preparing the way for the Messiah, the Christ, the Saviour King. Jesus, on the other hand, is the Way.

MESSAGE FROM FR GREG REGARDING ST ANTHONY'S PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL.

The PPC is an advisory body whose task is to listen and respond to the hopes, ideas, needs and concerns of parishioners, to set realistic pastoral goals for our faith community and to help with making decisions for the pastoral good of the parish. Usually, the term of membership for this group is two years with the expectation that about half would continue for a second term, but we have been in unusual times. Our current Council began their service on 6 Nov 2019. Many church activities were suspended during the pandemic of 2020 and 2021 and now need to be re-started prudently. I have been in my role as Parish Priest for less than a year. Given this context, more continuity seems best and therefore I have asked the current PPC members if they would be willing to have their terms extended. They have all kindly agreed to complete a term of four years which will end on 6 Nov 2023. At that point I will ask half the members to retire.

At the moment there is some room for rejuvenation of the PPC since there are two casual vacancies. If you would like to nominate a fellow parishioner to join the PPC, please fill in the form by 20 December (available at church doors). Please note that greater diversity would be a plus. The current PPC members are: Paul Burke, Robin Dosoruth, Roseanna Gallo, Anthony Gorman, Joe Orland, Christine Robertson, Margaret Turner, Simon Turner (Chair). Ex-officio members are Rachel Murphy (Pastoral Associate) and Kevin Turner (St Anthony's Primary School Principal) I take this opportunity to thank every member and request your prayers for the PPC.

NATIVITY PAGEANT. The 6pm Children's Mass on Christmas Eve 2022 will include a Nativity Pageant. Children wishing to participate will need to attend rehearsals in Church. Rehearsal times will be advised by the coordinators. Please complete and return the slip below to the Parish Office by Fri 9 Dec to indicate your interest. Queries to office@saintanthonys.org.au. A parent/guardian must attend each rehearsal, and be responsible for the supervision of their child(ren).
